INTELLIGENCE ANALYST Training Courses

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS), in support of State Fusion Centers, created the Baseline Capabilities and the Critical Operations Capabilities requirements.

Your Total Solutions Partner. One Source – A World of Service.

Trust GP Strategies™ to deliver high-quality intelligence analyst training to meet these benchmarks for the accreditation of your fusion centers.

As our nation continues its efforts to prevent terrorism by enhancing its capabilities for information sharing and intelligence processing, the need for qualified analysts has never been greater. In response, GP Strategies has developed training programs to improve analytical skills and meet accreditation requirements for fusion center personnel at all levels.

GP Strategies’ intelligence analyst program manager has trained more than 2,000 law enforcement and public safety officials in a wide range of topics and is a highly regarded subject matter expert on Domestic Terrorism. He has conducted courses for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), DHS and the United States Attorney’s Office at local, regional and national counterterrorism conferences. The program manager has also served as an adjunct instructor at state police and fire academies, teaching courses on terrorism.

Rely on GP Strategies for seasoned training on basic, intermediate and advanced intelligence analyses:

Basic Intelligence Analysis
- Introduction to Terrorism
- Introduction to Radicalization
- Introduction to the Intelligence Cycle
- Fusion Centers – Baseline Capabilities
- Critical Thinking
- Analytical Writing and Presentations I

Intermediate Intelligence Analysis
- Jihadist Ideologies, Radicalization
- Terrorism Tactics, Techniques and Procedures (TTPs)
- Fusion Centers – Critical Operating Capabilities
- Writing for the Law Enforcement Community
- Analytical Writing and Presentations II
- Tactical Intelligence Products

Advanced Intelligence Analysis
- Focus Study of Terrorism Organizations
- Analysis of Competing Hypotheses (ACH)
- Charting Techniques and Timelines
- Statistical Analysis
- Forecasting and Trends Analysis
- Writing for the Intelligence Community
- Strategic Intelligence Products

Trust GP Strategies to deliver high-quality intelligence analyst training to meet the benchmarks for the accreditation of your fusion centers.
Terrorism and Fusion Center Liaison Officer Course

In addition to intelligence analyst development, GP Strategies offers the Terrorism Liaison Officer (TLO) and Fusion Center Liaison Officer (FCLO) course for fusion center investigators and taskforce officers. This course provides the following topics for your officers and public safety personnel:

- Intelligence Cycle and Intelligence-Led Policing
- Definitions of Intelligence vs. Information
- Fusion Centers: Mission and Target Capabilities
- Fourth Generation/Asymmetrical Warfare
- Domestic and International Terrorism
- Eight Signs of Terrorism
- Critical Infrastructure and Key Resource Protection
- Liaison Role: Your Agency and the Fusion Center
- National Suspicious Activity Reporting (SAR) Initiative
- Civil Liberties and Privacy Concerns

Let GP Strategies put this level of expertise to work for you by designing a training program for your intelligence analysts that leverages seasoned instructors from the intelligence and law enforcement communities. Our training programs are not only accredited, but they are also delivered by experienced classroom instructors with professional, real-world knowledge in terrorism. This combination of real-world experience and cutting-edge academic theory in intelligence analysis greatly enhances the learning experience and effectiveness of your staff.

For more information, please contact:

David S. Hawtin
Emergency Preparedness Specialist
Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness
931-294-5931
dhawtin@gpstrategies.com